Need your Electric Car Charged?

With paid admissions into OSP we have the following locations available inside our gate for electric cars to be charged.

You will need your own extension cord /adapter to fit one of the above. OSP accepts no liability for any damages that might occur to your electric vehicle during charging. Follow your owner’s manual for proper electrical requirements.